

Robert Charles Goodhue

November 20, 1947 - November 28, 2024

Robert Charles Goodhue of Port Saint Lucie, FL passed away peacefully on Thanksgiving Day November 28, 2024, in West Palm Beach Florida.

Born on November 20, 1947, in Washington D.C., he was the beloved son of Leo and Jessica Goodhue.

“Big Rob” as he was affectionately called by friends was a hard-working commercial electrician, by trade, whose curiosity for problem solving was second to none. He had an obsession with muscle cars, billiards, and all things historical of World War II. And, if you started a conversation with “Big Rob” you were in for the long haul. He could spin tale after tale about everything from Snooker Matches to drag races to bar room brawls- especially if he had a cold Coors Light in his hand!

Travel plans were just suggestions as Rob preferred to throw caution to the wind and “wing it.”

Most of the time his sense of adventure paid off but sometimes his missteps made for better stories. Rob enjoyed making soup and loved chocolate even more. But unquestioningly, he loved nothing more than being with his family of whom he was fiercely protective- he was a man who laughed hard and hugged harder. There was no hour too late to pick up the phone when you needed encouraging words.

Rob is survived by his daughter, Elizabeth Ann and his son, Robert William; his sister, Liz; and his Grandchildren, Evan and Henry. Rob was a caring Brother-in-law to Beth Goodhue and Ken Morris; Uncle to Claire Sirmans, Alex, David, and Brian Goodhue; and a warm-hearted Father-in-law to Laura Goodhue, all of whom he enjoyed many a family dinner. As he begins his new journey, he also leaves behind his ex-wife Katherine "Casey" Goodhue whom he loved very much. Rob was predeceased by his greatly missed and beloved brother, John Goodhue.

Rob will be missed so dearly that words cannot express; But his spirit is with us and the memories he gave us will never fade.

The family will receive friends at Taylor & Modeen Funeral Home, 250 Center Street Jupiter, Florida 33458 on Saturday, December 7th, from 1:00 PM – 3:30 PM.

Floral arrangements graciously accepted.

“ Pop Goodhue was a wonderful, funny and playful guy. Only time I ever saw him serious was when he’d speak of how proud he was of Rob in both his career and his family life. I remember a good trainer friend of mine was working with him at the gym, once asked him what his health goals were. Mr G said: “I just wanna hang out with my grandsons and family as long as possible... and maybe also keep driving my hot rod.” He got nearly ten more years after that I believe, and though it’ll never feel like enough to those that know him, that dimpled smile of his will always live fondly in my memory.

“ I miss my father so much. He always knew how to cheer me up with his silly jokes. I always loved watching our British shows together. I Love you Daddy.
