“ Bobby helped me be a better swimmer because we had a friendly competition during many practices at NPBCC pool. He was a good friend...Button Head...or just plain Butt head! We laughed a lot and I enjoyed his friendship over those developmental years! Enjoy the afterlife Bobby!!!

“ Hey man. I just wanted to tell you I think about you often. I can't believe you are gone. I think back over all those times and years together and the living we did. Women, partying, laughing crying, surfing, sailing etc. I miss you more than you will ever know. I try to make it to cemetery every once in a while and drink a Heine for old times sake but I don't get there enough. You were a great friend and always had wisdom and guidance for me that no one else could offer. I'll see you again it gets closer every day and we can paddle out one more time on a cold winter morning at the ship or on a good south swell at pump house and then go play some pool. See you man. God Bless You!

“ Daddy I miss you in every single way possible I miss your passion that pushed me the drive you had to always find the right way to do anything. Your hugs and the memories oh old times. I found a bday card you wrote to me for my 16 birthday and I when I saw it I didn't remember what you wrote but it was most amazing thing to read and I felt like you were talking right to me. Gosh how I wish you could be here it's really hard without daddy I love every tree around the world and know you want what's best for your little girl I'm trying daddy I am. Happy birthday 62 you would been today I love you so much #1Taytay
