“ After every mass, Robert Trosclair came out from the front door of the church, hand in hand with Claire, greeted me with a smile and said, "You look like someone, so familiar to me." Then I said, "You do the same, very familiar to someone I know."

Robert, now I know whom we were talking about. It is the Lord Jesus. I never know I look like Him, but I know you do. Enjoy the Lord.

“ Again, My deepest sympathy to the Trosclair Family. Was very blessed to know him, and always impressed by his strong faith in Our Lord.

May Our Lord Jesus Christ embrace Papa Bob in his heavenly home.

He will be sadly missed for now, but he now has the gift of eternal life and will reunite with him someday.

Love
