“ I'm sorry I won't be able to make the memorial services, but send my heartfelt sympathy to his family. Ron will be widely remembered throughout JMC for his bright personality & smile that he gave to everyone he passed. He always stopped by to see me & give us the joke of the day- he was a true treasure to all of us!

“ Our love and sympathy go out to the family as they go through this sorrow at this time. Ron will always be remembered as a fun guy. We enjoyed seeing and spending time with Ron and Mickie at Jay and Sharon's house for holidays and parties while living in Florida. Ron had the Irish wit and I am sure he is doing a jig in heaven and bowling with the Leprechauns!

“ My husband and I are so sorry to hear about Uncle Ronnie's passing. I remember when I was a kid and my kid brother and I played in your NJ basement, with our cousins. We always had fun at your house. We missed you when you moved and looked forward to the occasional visits to Jupiter with Dad, as we got older. I'll always remember Uncle Ron's warm smile. He remains a part of my happier childhood memories. Love to All.
