She met her husband Herman Huffman while working for Firestone in Noblesville, Indiana. They were married in 1959 and moved to Jupiter to be with family. A devoted, compassionate and spirited person, Rosie was always prepared to assist, counsel, and listen to all, but her family and especially all the children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren were the loves of her life. She enjoyed fishing, bowling, gardening, and reading. Rosie was instrumental in starting the first softball league in Jupiter at the Kiwanis Park in the 1960's. She had a love of gaming that included annual vacation trips to Biloxi. A keen card player and bingo expert, Rosie always kept a close tab on the rules and a watchful eye on her competitors. Every Saturday, she could be found with her cousin, Iris Kohl, making the rounds at local garage sales.

A Funeral service will be held at 2:00pm on Saturday, September 24 at Taylor and Modeen Funeral Home, 250 Center Street, Jupiter. The family will receive friends at 1:30pm for viewing.

“ She would be so embarrassed to see her picture everywhere, but we don't care. I love you Rosie, and our house is just not full without you. We'll try our best to keep Hermie out of trouble (and Arby's), but I'm not making any promises. You left all of us onery ones behind...
