Rosemary Weaver Ortiz obituary

Rosemary Weaver Ortiz, 75, of Stuart, Florida passed away on October 28, 2022. Rosemary was born in Nashville, Georgia on January 6, 1947 to John Land Weaver and Sue Moore Weaver. “ Jim & family, I am saddened to learn of Rosie's passing last year. We all met when we moved to work for Hearst OTV in Charlotte in 2011. Rosie was such a sweetheart & such a pleasure to work with! We shared many great times together in our hotel/temporary housing time as well as daily lunches and several get togethers that I will remember fondly. May all of your loving memories help bring you comfort on the difficult days. xoxo

“ I will always remember Rosemary, and Jim as well, as being the best neighbors ever! Rosemary was such a sweet and kind person! She was even at the hospital with me during labor as my first son was born. She will truly be missed by all and especially her granddaughter. Love, Judy Zint

“ Jim & Family -- I was so terribly saddened to learn of Rosemary's passing and wanted to pass along to you and your family our sincere condolences and the prayers of Rebecca and me for her and all your family. Among my many "Moore Family" cousins, Rosemary was very special to me, and I will miss her. I still think fondly of our California get togethers many years ago and of course our Moore Family Reunions. I hope you will continue to stay in touch from time to time.

Blessings and love, Rusty

Jim and girls...I had the pleasure of working with Rosie for over 6 years at Olympusat. She was such a joy and ray of sunshine every morning. She was always so helpful and understanding. I just recently heard of her passing and was so disappointed that I didn't know because I would have been there for her service. May she rest in peace, I'm sure she is dancing up in heaven with her mom and dad. Love and prayers to your family. Love, Kim
