

Ryan Thomas Zug

October 3, 2025

In loving memory of Ryan Thomas Zug, 49, Palm City, FL, originally from Des Moines, Iowa. It is with broken hearts that we announce the passing of Ryan Zug, beloved, partner, son, brother, uncle, brother-in-law and friend, who left this world unexpectedly on Oct 3, 2025 after a sudden illness.

Ryan was the treasured partner of Carolyn King and beloved son of Thomas and Mary Ann Zug of Des Moines, stepfather to Christopher and Connor, and brother to Christopher and brother-in-law to Mary Lisa, proud uncle to Meghan, Matthew and Nathaniel. Ryan will be deeply missed by his extended family, so many friends and all those that were fortunate enough to know and love him.

Ryan grew up with a golf club in his hand since the age of 3 and never stopped the passion for the sport. He played collegiate golf at Kansas University and moved to Florida in 2004 to pursue his passion year-round. Ryan was the ultimate people pleaser and being in the golf industry suited him well to do just that. He will be forever missed by all who had the privilege of sharing in his life.

A service to celebrate Ryan's life will be held on October 11, 2025 at 5:00pm at Taylor & Modeen in Jupiter with visitation beginning at 4:00pm. Family and friends are invited to gather and share memories of Ryan.

In lieu of flowers Ryan has requested donations to Treasure Coast Hospice and Kansas University Golf Team.

Though our hearts are broken, we hold close the love we shared and the countless memories that will never fade. Ryan, you were and will always be in my heart. I love you!

“ My man Zugger, gone way too soon. Condolences to Carolyn and all of Ryan’s family. We were incredibly fortunate to share some of the best years at KU on the golf team together. For those from our generation, we all know Zugger was the “True man of the 90’s.” You will be greatly missed my friend. Rest in Peace. Love ya man.
