“ *I met this totally cool friend at Better Breathers (a group that meets at Jupiter Hospital monthly; a sort of support group), we clicked immediately. She was, as we all know, smart, funny, kind, understanding, and totally open minded. She didn't care what you were, what you'd done, what you had or who you were with —she enjoyed great conversation, a great laugh and a good deed. I'll always smile when I think of Sally but selfishly miss her terribly. I consider myself to have known this amazing person!

“ So sorry for your loss, she is with the lord, and we shall see our love ones again, prayers.
