Sarah lived a joyful life filled with many wonderful trips to Disney World and Universal Studios, and other activities with family. She especially loved watching her family bowl and made all her friends smile every time they saw her. Sarah spent free time watching her shows and movies and would definitely let you know when she wanted to watch something different. She gained her love of sports from her brother and Aunt Stephanie and cheered along when her brother's team played.

Sarah was adored by all the animals in her life and could be seen cuddling with them in her chair.
