Dear Norma, Marty, Jill, April (and the rest of this beautiful family)! Today, Shep came to mind as June 30 was around the corner and I would always try to call him on his birthday. I don't know what possessed me to Google his name but I came across his Obituary. My tears have not stopped rolling down my face. I loved Shep. I was his "Gal Friday" for 13 years! He made the world of the Stock Market so interesting, he inspired me to get registered. We started at Paine Webber and he transferred to Smith Barney and he took me with him. The rest is history. He treated me as his 3rd daughter. And Visa versa, I loved him like my dad at work. My heart breaks because it's a great loss. I called him earlier this year. He put Norma on the line. He shared stories with great detail going down memory lane. I'm so glad now we got a chance to laugh as we reminisced.

Fred Ash, I remember you. Thank you for sharing kind words about our dear friend.

It was my intentions to stop by on my next trip to Hobe Sound and show off my two young men & Bob and surprise him & celebrate his 90th together with my family. I'm so sadden it's not going to happen.

Shep, you have filled my heart with wonderful memories. You will be sorely missed. You left a great family behind to carry your caring and kind demeanor. Know they are loved. Blessings to all of them!

Shep, you will always hold a special place in my heart. Until we meet again,

Your "Gal Friday" forever,

Janet Alvarez Norwillo

“ Dear Norma, Marty, and Family,
I first met Shep almost 50 years ago in 1971 when I was a new young stockbroker from Chicago who had moved to Florida. In the following years at Paine Webber, Shep was a friend and mentor to me. I particularly admired his military style type precision and his immaculate dress code. When I moved to Tequesta I also had the pleasure of meeting and interviewing with his son Marty at the Stuart Paine Webber office. My wife and I extend our deepest sympathy to all in Shep's fine family.
Fondly, Fred & Allison Ash
