“ A true woman of the lord. Man I had the experience of just sitting down listening to her words of wisdom. Stories about how she loves to go on the bank in just fish in her free time. While everyone knows who she is on the creek. She walk around the yard telling us how she needed the fill dirt an asphalt on the driveway to look. Because her husband told her that asphalt was the best way to go. She explain how much she enjoyed going every Friday to see her mother thats 103 yrs old. I told her momma your bless. It's was a great time we spent just sitting on the porch just talking. I will miss you momma Williams, Lord knew he had a angel within her. So I do understand why he call you home. But just sad I couldn't enjoy more of your story in this earthly body. Momma Williams till we meet again. To the family she loved you guys very deeply. She enjoyed when y'all gathered at the house. An she loved her daughter she say that girl always watches an talking to me on that camera. So stay strong an know GOD always knows an perfect his plans for our lives. Best bless.
