“ Terry and my husband Walter go way back to childhood. When my husband took ill, all he wanted was to see his best friend one last time. Terry flew up here to spend a week with my husband which meant the world to the both of them. He was a wonderful man who I was proud to call my friend. My husband passed away the day after Terry left. They both had their wish come true when they shared Walter's last days together.

Terry you will always hold a special place in my heart. May God bless you. You are once again reunited with your best friend. My deepest sympathy to your family and close friends. You will be missed. Denise and Joey Winouski

“ I was sorry to hear of Terry's passing. I used to babysit for his son, Jason. I was attempting to find Jason and found the obituary for terry. If Jason reads this I would love for him to contact me. I plan on continuing to search for him. It has been about 40 years since I have seen him. Would love to know what he has been up to

“ It has been many years since we have seen or talked to Terry but will always remember his love for fashion. He spent many Mondays shopping with us as he always had an eye for fashion. I am sorry we lost touch with him.

Our sincere sympathy to his children and may God bless you with strength and faith during this sad time of Terry's passing..
In His peace,
