“ Dear Dwyers,

I placed a yellow rose from atop Aunt Terry's casket, on my mother's grave in Chicago today. I also brought a copy of the funeral Mass program to Bob Konen and Peggy Metz, the last two surviving Murphy cousins, and showed them the family pictures that were taken in your back yard.

Thank you for your hospitality while I was in Jupiter this week. I know that it was a very sad week for all of you, but Aunt Terry is finally at rest, after living a long and loved life.

“ To All the Dwyers:

When I think of your mom, the word "graciousness" comes to my mind.

She was always so gracious and kind to us, even though she didn't have the chance to see us all that often.

I have so many memories of her and all of you. All the times visiting you when you lived up on Lunt Ave in Chicago; holidays at your house up there, Pop bringing her a bouquet of roses to Midway Airport when she was leaving for the move to Florida, visiting Florida, and her many trips back to the Chicago area, some for happy events, some for sad. I remember visiting Aunt Terry and Uncle Bill in early 1984. She informed me then she had no interest in being a widow. Wouldn't it have been nice to see them grow old together? She came up to Chicago in January of 1994 to be with my mom when my dad died. Lorraine, Jinny, and Terry, three sisters who now had each buried their husbands during the month of January.

She came up once again in July of 2000 when we lost my sister. It started to rain at the gravesite and standing next to me, Aunt Terry informed me that the raindrops were "tears from heaven." Then, in June of 2008, she called my mom one night to have a chat, sister to sister. They talked for awhile, told each other "I love you," and said goodbye. My mom went to sleep, and within a few short hours, was on her way to heaven. How fitting that the last person my mom spoke with was her baby sister, Terry.

I know there is a wonderful reunion going on without us. Your dad was waiting for her with open arms. I hope that Lorraine and Jinny were next in line. I am so happy for all of them. I know your loss is heartbreaking. With time, I hope that all the years you were able to share with your mom will bring you peace, comfort, and happy

With love,

Kathy

“To my Dwyer cousins,

As my Sister Susie said so eloquently, we remember Aunt Lorraines Funeral when my Mother said that the circle is broken, we now know that the circle will now be forever linked. What a tremendous life for such a tremendous woman. I know that Aunt Terry is now with her beloved Husband, Bill for the rest of eternity as it should be. I probably visited Aunt Terry more than any of my siblings on my many golf vacations and she always very graciously opened her home to me where we could sit and talk which is all I ever wanted to do with Aunt Terry because she was so very interesting to talk to. My deepest sympathy to all my cousins on the loss of this very great lady, your Mother. I will be with you all in Spirit in the days to come and we will pray for Aunt Terry at the Father Perez Knights of Columbus meeting this evening. My love to you all.

“ Dear Dwyer Family,
I was so sad to read the news about your Mom in today's paper. As I've told many of you before, you all had the BEST MOM and the BEST DAD any kid could want. I will remember your Mom as so sweet and kind to me and my family growing up. I will always remember her as a giver. I'm so sorry for your loss and you all will be in my continued prayers. Just to add a light note....I think you know the words that echoed alot in my house when growing up "Why can't you guys be more like the Dwyer kids?" You all WERE really great kids thanks to the great Mom and Dad you had. God Bless.
