“ I will always remember Mr.Ringkamp as the kindest of men. He always had a compliment for the College of New Rochelle girls except when he didn't approve of who we were dating at the time or when Lynn has accumulated too many parking tickets!😓

He loved his family and worked so very hard at home and at work to make such a nice life for them.

He and Mrs.Ringkamp were a great couple. The youngest and most glamorous of our group. Mrs.was also one of my Mom's hospice nurses and they were both kind and supportive when she passed at 57.

I send prayers to his family as they remember and honor a wonderful Husband, Dad, Grandfather and Great-grandfather.

Dear Mary Jane Patrick and Lynn. So sorry to hear about Tom. He was always so stand up straight, tall, sociable, able to deal with all of the women at hospice. He was a great husband , dad and friend. I remember when they moved out east. If you looked out one window you saw one body of water, another window, another body of water. What else could you want. So sad when Mary Jane and Tom moved to Florida.
