

Vahan Kasbarian

April 18, 1923 - August 24, 2014

Vahan Kasbarian, known to his friends as "Kaz", 91, of Jupiter passed away Sunday, August 24, 2014. Vahan was born on April 18, 1923 in New York City and was the second eldest of four brothers including Harry, Jerry and Louis. As a professional photo engraver with Master Eagle for many years, he worked with clients such as Chanel No. 5, Revlon and Cosmopolitan Magazine.

Serving honorably as a US Navy Sea Bee, he served in WWII from January 1942 to February 1946.

Vahan and his wife Victoria, whom he lost in 1983, resided for many years in New Jersey, were fabulous dancers and traveled to various other countries. He and "Vicky" raised two children, Karen and Harry, were avid NY Giants fans and always tailgated at the games.

Karen and her first husband, Bradley Jones, raised two of his Grandchildren, Casey & Randi and Vahan had four Great-Grandchildren; Riley, Carter, Callie and Rayne. Karen is now remarried to Tommy Stephenson.

He retired with his remaining brother Louis to Jupiter, Florida in 1992, played golf, which was his passion, and worked as a course Ranger for PGA National. He was an avid sports fan and had played a wide variety of them throughout his life.

He was friends with everyone, helped anyone in need, and was always very generous, gracious, loving and kind.

There will be a visitation for family and friends at the funeral home on Thursday, August 28, 2014 from 6:00 - 8:00 PM. A funeral mass will be held at St. David Armenian Church in Boca Raton on Friday, August 29, 2014 at 11:00 AM.

“ I'll always love you and appreciate your friendship. I was a "stray" you took in and, as your Armenian name "Vahan" means....."Shield".....that is what you were to Karen, Harry, me and the rest of the family! Thanks for guarding and protecting us "Skipper"!
