

Warren Stephen McGuire

August 18, 1941 - August 27, 2015

McGuire, Warren S. (Steve)

Steve, 74, of Jupiter passed away unexpectedly Thursday, August 27, 2015, while visiting family in Ohio. He was born in Ironton, Ohio on August 18, 1941. Steve was the son of Warren and Marie McGuire.

Steve retired from the USAF as a Chief Master Sergeant after 23 years. He was assigned to Air Force One and the Presidential fleet while in the Air Force. Steve worked for Pratt & Whitney in Jupiter, retiring in 1984. Later he worked as an independent consultant for local engineering firms.

Steve is survived by his wife Linda of 50 years, son Shane (Diane), grandchildren Liam and Brooke McGuire, Justin Davis, sister Kay Edwards and his faithful companion Chloe, a standard poodle. He was preceded in death by his son Shawn and brother Kenny.

Steve enjoyed retirement and life in Jupiter and at his second home in Blue Ridge, Georgia.

“ Dear Linda and family, So very sorry to hear of Steve's passing, he was a friend and wonderful co-worker at Pratt & Whitney. A gentleman with a great sense of humor, infectious smile, and laugh. I lobe the comment that he had a standard poodle as a "faithful companion", as I have an Old English Sheepdog that is faithful to me. John 14:6
