

William R. Cinotti

September 14, 1926 - January 17, 2014

William R. Cinotti, DDS, 87, of Juno Beach, Florida passed away Friday, January

17, 2014. He was born in Jersey City, New Jersey and is survived by his loving and devoted wife of 27 years, Doris, his daughter and son-in-law Patricia Susan and Dr. Eric Moum, his 3 granddaughters Elizabeth, Katherine and Sarah, his brother Dr. Alfonse Cinotti, and 2 sisters Norma and Arlene. He was an Army veteran and a Major in the National Guard. He had a dental practice in Jersey City for many years but his passion was teaching dentistry at the University of Medicine and Dentistry (now Rutgers) in Newark. He became Associate Dean there and later was awarded the honor of Professor Emeritus. He was dedicated to helping people - opening 13 clinics in South Jersey for the underserved. Family, friends and colleagues will miss him. A memorial service will be held at 3 p.m., Monday, January 20th, at Taylor & Modeen Funeral Home, 250 Center Street, Jupiter, FL. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Parkinson Disease Assoc.

“ He was my dentist when I was in my thirties. Dr. Gerald Rosnick was my dentist when I was young. I could tell immediately that Dr. Cinotti was a kindly person when I first met him in 1983 at his office on Kennedy Boulevard in Jersey City. He will be missed. Robert Dawson Jersey City, NJ

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Dr. Cinotti. So many fond memories of him on the clinic floor. I close my eyes and I can see his beautiful face smiling and walking towards me with open arms. Always ready to embrace every student who needed a hug or a quick word of encouragement. He was a true teacher and a wonderful person. May he rest in peace knowing that he will never be forgotten.

“ We pray for God to bring comfort to the family of Dr. Cinotti. He was a generous man who cared for the least of these.
