

Dr. William Wilford Dugger Jr.

March 13, 1932 - August 13, 2018

Dr. William Francis Wilford Dugger, Jr. passed away Monday August 13, 2018 at the age of 86. William is survived his two sons Christopher of West Palm Beach and Ian of Jupiter. William is preceded in death by Mary Ligon Dugger in 2012. William was born on March 13, 1932 in Lake Worth, Fl. to Edith Leshner and William Wilford Dugger, Sr. William graduated from Auburn University in 1958 with a degree in Veterinary Medicine. William married Mary Ligon Brown in 1959. After moving to Jupiter, Fl in 1967, William opened the Jupiter/Tequesta Animal Hospital. William was also employed at the Palm Beach Kennel Club as a track veterinarian until his passing. William also worked at race tracks in Naples, Flagler and Corpus Christi. Visitation is scheduled for 3pm to 6pm, Sunday August 26 at Taylor & Modeen Funeral Home – 250 Center Street, Jupiter, Fl. All are welcome to attend and celebrate as William joins his beloved Mary Ligon. To also share memories of an earthly experience spent filled with love, humor and joy/challenges of raising boys that will continually require watching over throughout eternity... William was a blessing that touched many us with a “dog gone good life”! In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to Furry Friends / Humane Society of Greater Jupiter/Tequesta at <https://www.furryfriendsadoption.org/donate> .

Dr. Dugger was one of the kindest men I've ever met. He was a fatherly friend in my life as I grew up with both his sons. We shared a love for animals and art .... He was a great enthusiastic, gentle, and good humored man and I will miss him dearly. My comfort is found in knowing he is with his lovely bride. We will keep your beautiful spirits alive in our memories of happy moments spent with you both. So much laughter & love.

Much Love to the entire Dugger family, Love Lisa
