“ We first met Willie on the dog path with his little dog Scruffy over 10 years ago. We were a group of neighborhood dog owners who soon became friends and looked forward to each morning that we could meet and chat about life's events as we walked our dogs. Over the years, Willie would always bring special treats -- the dogs would run like the wind as soon as they spied him on the trail because they knew he had something good in store for them!

I know Scruffy is grieving for his beloved Willie but am assured that they will see each other again in heaven. RIP Willie, our friend.
