

William C. Jones Jr.

April 23, 1934 - September 23, 2022

William C Jones Jr.

Bill Jones, 88, passed away Sept 23rd while in hospice care at PBG Medical Center. Born in Boston, he graduated from Boston College in 1957 with a B.S. in Physics. He soon started his thirty-year career with Raytheon Corp., rising from Engineering to General Management before retiring as President of Switchcraft, a Chicago subsidiary of Raytheon.

A resident of Juno Beach since 1995, Bill is survived by his wife, Nancy, of 39 years. He is also survived by his children, William Jones (Eileen), Karen Wait (Bruce), Deborah Fisher (Ken), Susan Young (Stephen), and by the mother of his children, Gail Potter Jones. He is the proud grandfather of Brooks Wait, Curran Wait, Isabel Young, Caroline Young, Charlotte Fisher, Claire Fisher, and Josephine Jones (Kiarra)

A skilled wood-turner, golfer and friend to many, he especially enjoyed his time at his workshop in Jupiter, welcoming all who came by for a chat. If you wanted something done and done right "Ask Bill". He was an honest and generous man who gave more than he took. His wise council and sense of humor will be sorely missed.

“ Dear Bill, You were our Brother-in-law and Uncle to our children and a loving husband to my sister. Over the years we had occasion to be with you and Nancy through so many gatherings and holidays. You were always there with a joke or story to make us laugh or many times, think! We're so glad we had the chance to go to Europe with you and Nancy this past April. It was such an unforgettable experience. You have left a big hole in the family and you will be greatly missed. With our appreciation and love - Sheila and David

I met Bill once when Nancy invited a group to their home. He was a delight to be with and my conversation with him showed real concern for an issue I was dealing with. I know his passing is a huge loss to family and friends

“ My heart is so sad... Bill was such a good friend and I admired and respected him so much. Always there to listen to one of my collaborating art ideas ...I can hear his laugh right now ! We made some great pieces together and I was so proud to say I collaborated with Bill Jones! Such a talented man. I could always stop in and chat any time. Loved his big hugs!!! To Nancy I send you my condolences and much love and peaceful thoughts as to all the family. You and Bill are so special to me. He will be missed by many .

“ Bill, what a guy! Such a sweetheart. Knew him a little from BallenIsles, but Nancy and I became great golf trip buds and I appreciated him putting up with us taking off for 4 or 5 days a year to go golf with the girls. Over the years he made beautiful wood pieces for us and did a repair or two of wood furniture for me. He will be missed so!! Nancy take care and I will see you very soon. Love, Jennifer
