

William C. Regelmann

June 9, 1927 - February 3, 2019

William C. Regelmann, age 91, passed from this earth on Feb. 3, 2019. Born on Long Island, NY, in 1927, he studied music as a youngster and played professionally by age 14. At age 17 he joined the Navy during WWII. After his service in the South Pacific was completed, he and his lovely wife, Louisa, moved to the West Palm Beach area in 1949. He continued to work in the music field he so loved as a piano technician and a pianist. He was very popular in exclusive Palm Beach clubs and played private parties until age 90. Bill's other full time love he discovered at age 35, was the game of tennis. He played competitively until he was age 89.

Bill was widowed after losing his beloved Louisa two years ago. He leaves behind his two children, Lynn Heaton and Mark Regelmann and his wife, Terri; one brother, Bob Regelmann and wife, Seija; 3 granddaughters, Katie Lozier, Lauren Paxson, and Jenna Miller; and 4 great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by his sister, Marianne Younge. There will be a celebration of his life at the Lighthouse Artcenter Gallery, 373 Tequesta Dr. on February 23, 2019 from 3 pm - 6 pm. All Bill's family and friends are invited. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to trustbridge hospice , 1230 South Old Dixie Highway, Jupiter, FL 33458.
