“ Bill, you were a very special friend. Someone who accepted me, as well as everyone you met, as you found us. You left each of us a better person for our time with you. You used an unassuming manner to relay the wide range of your life's experiences. Your amazing sense of humor, quick wit and glib manner were the envy of all fortunate to know you. You were a devoted husband; a proud father and a loyal friend to so many of us. I will miss my pal who taught me so much. I feel so privileged to have spent time with you.

“ Well I believe you had a good run.., that surely will not stop the loneliness without you. You always had a smile and a kind word or two to cheer up even the worst of days. If anything, you have taught me to keep my head up and make the best of each day. Thank you for being you and keeping our friendship going for over 10 years. So long old friend! XOXO
