“ Here we are in september and I just found out about your passing today! Oh I am so sorry you are gone and I wish we could have spent more time together over the last few years! We had some good laughs together at my garage just hanging out and busting on each other! I will miss you my friend! Love to Wendy and Katie, so sad for your loss!

“ Wendy and Katie, I am saddened to the quick to learn of Will's death. I haven't spoken to him for many years, but I have thought of him with great frequency. He was and will continue to be a central role in my life as I am surprised how often I think back to something he said, the way handled a situation or the way he approached a problem and use it as a reference. I remember at the going away party you had for him before he joined the Coast Guard a poem of his that was read drawing a parallel between life and a drag race and just how perceptive it was. What a terrible, terrible thing. This is truly awful.

“ There's nothing quite like the love and relationship between a mom and her son. I can't begin to imagine your pain and depth of loss. Know that my heart and thoughts are with you. I'm hear to listen if you need me. I'd luv to hear more about your precious Will when you're ready. In the meantime I'll hold you, your family, and Will in my thoughts and prayers. Hugs and luv.
